

Do not give in to the bankers and telemarketers by weakening Wisconsin's Do Not Call law. Before Wisconsin put it's law into effect, I would receive over a dozen telemarketers calls a week. Now I lucky to get one a month, and then that is usually from a non-profit. If anything make it stronger and get rid of all the recorded calls from people running for public office.